

East Carolina University
University Committee on Academic Integrity
Academic Integrity Board (AIB)
2019-2020

Membership:

The Committee (AIB) consists of sixteen faculty members, at least six of whom should be graduate faculty status, elected for three-year staggered terms by the Faculty Senate. Through this Committee (AIB) faculty members will be selected to serve on panels to address allegations of Academic Integrity. The panel composition includes three faculty, selected from the Committee (AIB) and two student members, selected by the Conduct Board and its Advisor.

Committee Purpose and Responsibilities:

The purpose of this committee is to adjudicate case of academic integrity and to hear appeals of decisions reached by faculty. The Academic Integrity Board reviews cases in instances when a student appeals a faculty member's decision. In rare situations where there is no instructor of record, the AIB is charged with determining a student's culpability and, if appropriate, assigning sanctions.

Terms of Office:

Faculty members are appointed for a three-year term and the student members for one-year term with the opportunity to return if still enrolled.

To Whom the Committee Reports:

OSRR oversees the activities of this committee. Vice Chancellor, Student Affairs

Standard Meeting Time:

Student members are trained throughout the course of the academic year and meet at least once a month. Faculty members are trained in the fall and come together once a semester. Academic Integrity Board panels are convened as cases arise.
