

East Carolina University Technology Acquisition Committee

Membership:

Information Technology & Computing Services, ECU Physicians, Research, Economic Development and Engagement, Student Affairs, Health Sciences, Office of Institutional Integrity, Materials Management, College of Business, Information Security, Office of the Registrar, College of Technology & Computer Science, Financial Services, Data Stewardship committee, and Faculty Senate

Committee Purpose and Responsibilities:

The Technology Acquisition Committee (TAC) reviews and approves technology procurement requests; providing guidance in the selection, development and implementation of hardware, software systems (including cloud systems), databases and third party IT services that support University operations for the purposes of assuring compatibility with existing East Carolina University systems to promote operational efficiency, limiting storage of sensitive (regulatory) information outside of the university's designated academic and administrative system(s), and ensuring university data is protected within the scope of applicable university policies, government regulations and state laws.

Terms of Office:

Two years

To Whom the Committee Reports:

Chief Information Officer

Standard Meeting Time:

N/A

Current Roster:

Information Technology and Computing Services: Hector Molina (Chair)

ECU Physicians Representative: Allen Watkins

Research, Economic Development and Engagement, Vice Chancellor or Representative/IRB: Mary Farwell

Student Affairs: Brad Simons

Health Sciences/CIS Representative: Tim Smith

Health Sciences: Philip Allen

Materials Management Representative: Kevin Carraway

College of Business Representative: Jason Jones

Information Security/ITPC Representative: Mark Webster

Office of the Registrar/FERPA Representative: Angela Anderson

College of Technology and Computer Science Representative: John Jones

Financial Services/PCI Representative: Robin Mayo

Data Stewardship Committee Representative: Mike Hanley

Faculty Representation: Wendy Creasey