

East Carolina University ADA Accessibility Committee

Membership:

Members are based upon University role and may be adjusted based on need and/or availability.

Committee Purpose and Responsibility:

The ADA Accessibility Committee has oversight of ADA functions and facilitates discussion related to ADA topics, ideas, and opportunities across the campus community. The committee serves as the primary assembly to discuss best practices and recommendations to encourage a campus culture that is mindful of all aspects of accessibility, including effective communication, effective practices, and the physical environment. The committee facilitates on-going updates to the ADA self-assessment and transition plans.

Terms of Office:

Membership is reviewed annually.

To Whom the Committee Reports:

Vice Chancellor of Administration and Finance. The Vice Chancellor of Administration will report to the Executive Council as needed but at least annually.

Standard Meeting Time:

Meetings are held as needed but bi-annually at minimum.
